Think Pink for October

You can get your clients' hair punked and pinked out for a good cause. SO.CAP. USA Hair Extensions announces Pink Hair For Hope as an annual program to support breast cancer research. When your client donates $10 to The National Breast Cancer Foundation at your salon, they will receive a free pink hair extension graft. The extension is easily bonded to the hair using 100-percent keratin. SO.CAP. USA Hair Extensions raised over $25,000 last year for the National Breast Cancer Foundation. To register your salon for participation, visit www.pinkhairforhope.com.

PROUDLY FEATURED IN

SO.CAP. USA Hair Extensions is in its second year of supporting breast cancer research with its Pink Hair for Hope campaign. Any salon client who donates $10 to the National Breast Cancer Foundation at a SO.CAP. USA salon will receive a pink hair extension graft.

SO.CAP. USA PINK HAIR EXTENSIONS
 Salon clients donate $10 to benefit National Breast Cancer Foundation and receive a pink hair extension in return.

The National Hair Journal

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. When your client donates $10 to The National Breast Cancer Foundation at your salon during September and October, they will receive a free pink hair extension graft courtesy of SO.CAP. USA Hair Extensions Pink Hair for Hope campaign.

Hopefully they'll want at least two or three! These unique bright pink hair extension grafts signify a unifying bond between women. To learn how to participate call 877-855-HAIR, visit the National Breast Cancer Foundation at www.NationalBreastCancer.org and www.PinkHairForHope.com.
